

❖ Department of Geography

The Department of Geography was established in 2003. The Department of Geography offers under graduate (BA) course. The department is providing good class teaching facilities to the students through offline/online classes, webinars and Audio-visual class etc. Weather instrument includes Maximum and Minimum Thermometer, Wet and Dry bulb Thermometer, The Department of Geography always take extra efforts for academic improvement of students with the help of various activities such as Guest lectures, Study Tours, Village Survey. The department of Geography also celebrates different days like Geography Day on 14th January every year, World Environment Day, World Ozone Day, World Population Day, and World Tourism Day. We also conduct activities like Exhibition of Geographical instruments, Poster presentation online quiz competitions etc.

A wide range of jobs for geographers. Those having technical expertise in Geographic Information Systems (GIS) and remote sensing can be in heavy demand from both the public and private sectors. The Development analyst, planners, Environmental consultants, Weather analyst, are many other options for geography students. ,

➤ Objectives

1. To create a research attitude among the Geographers and students.
2. To provide necessary information about Geographical sense among the students.

➤ Existing Faculty

Sr. No.	Name of the Faculty	Designation	Qualification	Year of Experience
1.	Prof. Rayate R.D	Assistant Professor	M.A. B.ed	4 Years

➤ Department's Future plans

1. Collaboration with National Institution
2. To conduct Career Guidance Programs.
3. To conduct Inter-collegiate Competitions and Seminars.
4. To commencement of the P.G course in Geography
5. To establish well Departmental Library and Laboratory
6. Introduce certificate course in Travel and Tourism.

Student Profile 2022-23

Class	No. of Student	Male	Female
F.Y.B.A	104	67	37
S.Y.B.A	9	05	04
T.Y.B.A	07	05	02